Where elegance meets functionality

When you need both elegance and function, think of Rynk Linia. This sleek linear light, available in various lengths, features a slim profile and clean lines, making it ideal for both subtle and bold lighting accents.

Thanks to its elegant, minimalist design, Rynk Linia seamlessly integrates into any interior—from homes and offices to retail spaces and hospitality environments.

Meet in the best light

The problem with online meetings is often poor facial lighting. With an additional light source – Bolla, which emits a soft and evenly diffused light – your on-screen appearance will look much better. Perfect also for focused work.
