INTRODUCTION

An ode to French elegance, capturing the timeless charm of France - from vibrant cities to serene countryside. Inspired by fashion and art de vivre, each piece reflects effortless grace and enduring sophistication, embodying the essence of timeless, chic French style.

EDITOR'S NOTE

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Since our founder Theo started Eichholtz more than 33 years ago, he has always held fast to the founding principles of delivering distinctively designed collections with integrity and authenticity. Even today, our designs remain deeply inspired by travels around the world — by places and spaces, cities, antique dealers, and vintage markets. One of our greatest sources of inspiration over the years has been France — its beauty and diversity, from the vibrant cities and serene countryside to the brilliance of the Côte d'Azur.

We also draw inspiration from iconic late 20th-century designers such as Jean-Michel Frank, Pierre Jeanneret, Charlotte Perriand, Andrée Putman, and — Art Deco master and favorite of Theo — Jacques Ruhlmann. Beyond design, we celebrate the richness of French culture: the fashion, the cuisine, and the mastery of fine arts and craftsmanship. This season, we are proud to introduce our latest collection inspired by this magnificent journey.

As we unveil our new collections, we are equally proud of our strong relationships with international partners. We continue to expand with new Eichholtz Brand Stores, with several new locations set to open across the globe in the coming months.

We are also delighted to extend our collaboration with The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York into its third season. Speaking of partnerships, we are thrilled to announce upcoming collaborations with celebrated New York interior designers Corey Damen Jenkins and Vanessa Deleon for 2026.

Our aim has always been to inspire. As you turn the pages of this magazine, we hope you feel the same excitement we do. Behind every piece lies the dedication of our entire design team and the craftsmanship of countless artisans from around the world. We are honored to share this collection with you.

Edwin van der Gun
Chief creative officer

*"Design creates culture. Culture shapes value.
Values determine the future."*

CARE INSTRUCTIONS

How to care for furniture with fabric upholstery

Whether or not your upholstered furnishings are purely decorative or both functional and stylish, careful cleaning and maintenance of the fabric grants long term satisfaction.

To fully enjoy your fabric seating and ensure its longevity, please follow a few basic rules:

- Don't place your seating near a fireplace that's in use.
- Avoid exposure to excessive sunlight.
- Be careful with jeans that can transfer colour onto the fabric: this may be unfixable.
- Don't expose your seating to scratches from pets or sharp objects (e.g. studs, buckles).

Cleaning & Maintenance

Routine maintenance helps keep your upholstered furniture in perfect condition. Vacuum clean the upholstery regularly to keep the fabric in good shape and prevent dust, hair and crumbs from settling into the body of the furniture. Be careful with fringes and tassels: vacuum clean them only with low power.

Remove spills and other accidental stains as soon as possible, but never with harsh soaps or detergents. In the case of an old and dried up stain, the first step is always vacuuming.

For stain removal use a specialized stain cleaner such as HG stain remover or a similar product. Follow the instruction on the packaging and always try the solution on an inconspicuous part of the upholstery before using it on a more noticeable portion.

To maintain the original softness and resilience of the cushions, hand fluff and reverse the cushions regularly.
